Postdoctoral Research Fellow position at the Department of Social Anthropology

UiB - Knowledge that shapes society
Through robust and close interaction with the world around us - globally, nationally and locally - we shall be instrumental in building a society based on knowledge, skills and attitudes.
Do you want to take part in shaping the future?
Video: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=JRdMR-PhbBQ&t=4s

Postdoctoral Research Fellow position at the Department of Social Anthropology
There is a vacancy for a postdoctoral research fellow position at the Department of Social Anthropology. The position is for a fixed-term period of 3 years.

The postdoctoral research fellow position is part of a project titled, “Tackling Precarious and Informal Work in the Nordic countries (PrecaNord)”. The project, which begins 1st of August 2022 and ends in 2026, is funded by Svenska Litteratursällskapet i Finland. The working environment for this position will be the Department of Social Anthropology, University of Bergen. The successful candidate is expected to be based in Bergen during the project period (except for fieldwork-periods).

About the project:
PrecaNord will examine precarious and informal work in the Nordic countries. The future of the Nordic social model depends on the availability of secure employment. The model is challenged by changes in labour markets. PrecaNord asks how and in which ways is precarious and informal work a challenge for the Nordic model? In focus is research on how workers experience informal work, its consequences to workers livelihoods and to their sense of belonging, and trust in society. The postdoctoral fellow appointed at the University of Bergen will focus on the situation in Norway, while two other postdoctoral fellows will do similar work in Sweden and Finland. To get a comprehensive view of the phenomenon and to understand how gender, age, nationality, ethnicity, and migrancy intersect in the field, the project focus on 1) construction work; 2) cleaning work (of both homes and offices); and 3) low-skilled platform work (food delivery, taxi service, cleaning services). The postdoctoral fellow will mainly conduct empirical research, including participant observation and semi-structured interviews. A project description is available. Please contact Synnove.bendixsen@uib.no

Qualifications and personal qualities:
- The applicant must hold a Norwegian PhD or an equivalent degree within social anthropology or other relevant disciplines (e.g., Sociology, Geography) or must have submitted his/her doctoral thesis for assessment prior to the application deadline. It is a condition of employment that the PhD has been awarded.
- Experience from qualitative methods.
- Work independently and in a structured manner, as well as have the ability to cooperate with others.
- Proficiency in both written and oral English.
- A good command of the Norwegian or any Scandinavian language is an advantage.

Potential candidates may be invited to the department for an interview and might be asked to hold a trial lecture in a given topic.

Applicants are advised to familiarize themselves with the teaching and research profile at the Department, please see Department of Social Anthropology

About the position of postdoctoral research fellow:
The fixed-term period for this position is 3 years. Individuals may not be hired for more than one fixed-term period as a postdoctoral research fellow at the same institution.

A research proposal of 4-5 pages must accompany the application. The proposal should contain a progress plan for the different parts of the research work, as well as a plan regarding publishing. It is a requirement that the project is completed in the course of the period of employment. A budget must be set up for operating expenses.
We can offer:
- A good and professionally challenging working environment.
- Salary at pay grade 61 (code 1352) on the government salary scale upon appointment (equivalent to NOK 553 500,- per year). Further promotions are made according to length of service in the position.
- Enrolment in the Norwegian Public Service Pension Fund.
- Good welfare benefits.

Your application must include:
- A brief account of the applicant's research interests and motivation for applying for the position.
- The names and contact information for two reference persons. One of these must be the main advisor from the PhD programme.
- CV
- Transcripts and diplomas and official confirmation that the doctoral thesis has been submitted.
- Relevant certificates/references.
- List of any works of a scientific nature (publication list).
- Any publications in your name.

The application and appendices with certified translations into English or a Scandinavian language must be uploaded at Jobbnorge.

General information:
Detailed information about the position can be obtained by contacting: synnove.bendixsen@uib.no

Practical questions about the application process should be directed to: bodil.hagland@uib.no

The state labour force shall reflect the diversity of Norwegian society to the greatest extent possible. Age and gender balance among employees is therefore a goal. It is also a goal to recruit people with immigrant backgrounds. People with immigrant backgrounds and people with disabilities are encouraged to apply for the position.

The University of Bergen applies the principle of public access to information when recruiting staff for academic positions.

Information about applicants may be made public even if the applicant has asked not to be named on the list of persons who have applied. The applicant must be notified if the request to be omitted is not met.

Further information about our employment process can be found here.

About The University of Bergen (UiB)

The University of Bergen is a renowned educational and research institution, organised into seven faculties and approximately 54 institutes and academic centres. Campus is located in the centre of Bergen with university areas at Nygårdsheymen, Haukeland, Marineholmen, Mellendalsveien and Arstad.

There are seven departments and three centres at Faculty of Social Sciences. Read more about the faculty and departments.

Jobbnorge-ID: 219939, Søknadsfrist: 10. april 2022