

The Institute of Marine Research is one of Europe's largest centres of marine research. We have a staff of around 750 and a wide range of research facilities and laboratories of high international standard. The Institute owns and operates six research vessels. Our main offices are in Bergen, and we have a department in Tromsø and research stations in Matre, Austevoll and Flødevigen.

Vacant post doctoral position - Chemical oceanography, trends in ocean acidification carbonate chemistry in Norwegian and polar waters (Mrk. 47-16)

Jobbnorge-ID: 127735, Søknadsfrist: Avsluttet