

Northern Research Institute Narvik (Norut Narvik) is a technical scientific research institute. Its mission is to explore new solutions across disciplines to support businesses operate and grow sustainably in the north. It has departments in cold climate technology, infrastructure, materials and construction, and process and environmental technology. Norut Narvik is part of the Norut group - a multi-disciplinary research and innovation group that provides services of high quality and practical applicability to clients. Norut has over 30 years of experience, 110 employees, is located in the three North Norwegian counties, and has a focus on issues relating to the High North. Norut Narvik has 25 employees with a young, dynamic, creative and innovative environment. The surroundings of Narvik are excellent for outdoor activities and recreation in the countryside. Narvik presents a safe and stable environment for raising children.

Ph.D. Position on Oil-in-Ice in Fjords

Jobbnorge-ID: 137831, Søknadsfrist: Søknadsfristen er gått ut