

Norsk
Utenrikspolitisk
Institutt

The Norwegian Institute of International Affairs holds a leading position in research and information on international political and economic matters and on issues central to Norwegian foreign policy. The institute is organized under the Ministry of Education and Research. The staff counts approximately 70, divided between academic staff (50) and administration and communications staff (20).

Temporary Position as Research Assistant - Emerging Powers and Global Development

Jobbnorge-ID: 91147, Søknadsfrist: Avsluttet